

Interdisciplinary Graduate Seminar: Creative Conservation Messaging

Using the Arts & other creative approaches for environmental social change

Come share your ideas, create projects & be inspired by the speaker's series:

Marda Kirn:
Founder & Exec. Dir. EcoArts
<http://www.ecoartsonline.org/>

Michael Brown:
Filmmaker, Serac Adventure
Films
<http://www.seracfilms.com/>

Patty Limerick: Env. Activist,
Center for the American West
<http://centerwest.org/about/patty>

Tom Yulsman: Environmental Journalist & Blogger
<http://discovermagazine.com/authors?name=Tom+Yulsman#.UsXNN7TBOSo>

Scott Gwozdz:
Non-profit Marketing
<http://www.changemakers.com/user/156132>

Dana Watts:
Exec.Dir., Leave No Trace
<http://lnt.org/>

Michael Theodore: Digital Artist
<http://michaeltheodore.info>

Richard Saxton: M12 Artist & Open
Action Workshops
<http://www.richardsaxton.org/>

Jeff & Paige: Environmental Musicians
<http://jeffandpaige.org/>

Jason Houston: Environmental Photographer
<http://www.jasonhouston.com/>

Jessie Fischer: Climate Change
educator *

Kate Clark: Beehive Design Collective
<http://beehivecollective.org/en/>

Beth Osnes: Performance Artist *

Nick Forster: Founder of E-Town
radio
<http://www.etown.org/>

Christy McCain: Climate Change
Scientist
<http://spot.colorado.edu/~mccainc/>

Who: CU graduate students in any department

When & Where: Spring Semester: Wed. 2-5pm in the Paleo Hall, Henderson

What: Participants will discuss and produce their own conservation messages through their chosen creative media.

Enroll now: MUSM 6110 (a few spots left)

Contact: christy.mccain@colorado.edu

*Tentative